

WANTS ASPHALT ROAD TO DEADEN NOISY CLATTER

Judge Stuart Says Wagons on Dirt and Rock Make Racket Which Disturbs Court

"If the grounds of the judiciary building could be paved, and cement sidewalks and asphalt roadways laid, it would not only be an excellent improvement but it would be a boon to courts and juries," remarked Circuit Judge Stuart today, commenting on the work now in progress to beautify the court house grounds.

"Wagons driving over the present dirt and rock roadways cause a clatter which sometimes makes it necessary to stop proceedings in court until the vehicle has passed," Judge Stuart continued. "I understand that macadam is to be laid down in place of the dirt and rock, and this certainly will be excellent."

Territorial prisoners are hard at work on the court house grounds. Curbs are being laid. Cement sidewalks are to be put down. It is understood that the entire road area will be macadamized. New grass will be planted. Portions of the land that has been bare of grass for years soon will have a new cloak of green verdure.

"The work certainly reflects credit on the department of public works," said a bystander today. "It is about time that this work was being done."

It was reported today that the open space at the side of the judiciary building, where the big banyan tree stands, will be equipped for parking automobiles. The project of curbing and laying sidewalks and roadways will be extended to and include the board of health and the dispensary buildings.

GERMAN PICNIC FOR OFFICERS AND CREW OF GEIER

Six officers and 74 of the crew of the interned German cruiser S. M. S. Geier were the guests yesterday in Moanaloa Gardens of Honolulu Lodge No. 1 of the German order of Hermanns Soehne.

Everyone had a good time. The celebration started at 10 o'clock in the morning and continued until nearly 6 o'clock last evening. There were games and athletic events of various sorts, and about 300 Germans and German-Americans were present.

Officers of the Geier present as guests of the lodge included Commander Grasshof, Lieut. Cmdr. Eismann, Lieut. Pustuchen, Lieut. Jacob-Muller, Chief Engineer. Hildebrandt, and Ship's Doctor Gutschow.

HAS TO PAY $150 FOR CHEFA TICKETS IN HIS POCKETS, BUT KEEPS MUM

Indisputable evidence against S. H. Kawewehi, in the shape of a wad of chefa tickets found in his pockets, caused Judge Monsarrat this morning to impose a fine of $150 and costs on Kawewehi, on the charge of maintaining a lottery. Kawewehi is believed by the police to be only an assistant, but he would not give any information as to who ran the bank for which he was salesman.

CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED ASSAULT MAY BE PUT BEFORE GRAND JURY

R. Christito, arrested last Thursday on suspicion that he is the man who entered the home of Lieut. W. C. Whitener on Lanikuli drive, Manoa road, and attacked Mrs. Fred W. Palmer, wife of Capt. Palmer of Fort Rosecrans, Cal., and a guest of Mrs. Whitener, will probably be accused of attempted assault before the grand jury this week.

Christito has been almost positively identified by Mrs. Palmer as the man who entered her room, choked her almost into insensibility and forced her to jump from a second story window to save herself. Mrs. Palmer is still in the Fort Shafter hospital, but is rapidly recovering from injuries sustained when she jumped from the window.

Christito, according to a Japanese woman who worked at the Glade place, where he was employed, made advances to her and when she refused to associate with him told her that he did not care as he was going to get a white woman.

IMITATIONS OF HAWAII'S FLOWER GO TO BIG SHOW

Promotion Committee Will Forward Artificial Hibiscus to Cleveland Exhibit

Hawaii's typical flower—that is, the flower that many people call more typical of the islands than any other of several hundreds—the hibiscus—will be on display at the National Flower Show which Cleveland will hold from November 10 to 14.

Through the efforts of Secretary Taylor of the Promotion Committee and J. E. Higgins, horticulturist of the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station, artificial hibiscus will be sent to Cleveland. They will be manufactured by The Gift Shop, Mrs. Merriam's skill in making the dainty blooms being well known.

Secretary M. A. Vincent of the Cleveland show wrote to Secretary Taylor and Mr. Higgins and both took the matter up. It was realized that fresh flowers could not be sent from Hawaii owing to lack of time as well as the difficulties of transportation and distance. The artificial hibiscus suggestion met with favor in Cleveland and on Saturday Higgins received a cablegram asking him to send on the exhibit.

This show will be one of the most notable in the United States. One little feature is of unusual interest. The management is bringing from the estate of Adolph Lewisohn, near New York, several monster chrysanthemums. They are 14 feet in diameter and so tall that they cannot pass under the ordinary railroad bridges. To get them to Cleveland, special cars with lowered tanks have been secured and the chrysanthemum will travel in much the same luxurious state that the lordly and obese hippopotamus does with a circus when it moves by railroad.

ARMY NOTES

The following coast artillery officers have been ordered from their posts on the mainland to Honolulu, where they are to report as soon as possible after January 1, 1916. First Lieut. Frederick L. Martin, 1st Lieut. Samuel H. Tighman, 1st Lieut. Otto H. Schurer, 1st Lieut. Levin H. Campbell, 2nd Lieut. George R. Meyers, 2nd Lieut. Hugh J. Knerr, 2nd Lieut. Cris. M. Burlingame.

Sergt. Charles Evans of the 1st Battalion of Engineers has been transferred from the mainland to Fort Shafter and assigned to Co. 1, 3rd Battalion of Engineers. He will leave San Francisco on the November transport.

Capt. Campbell King of the 1st Infantry has been transferred from Schofield Barracks to the Western Department at San Francisco. He probably will sail on the November 5th transport.

First Lieut. Stanley A. Campbell of the 1st Infantry has been ordered from Schofield Barracks to the Western Department at San Francisco.

PHOENIX LODGE PLANS HIGH JINKS TOMORROW

An enjoyable smoker will be given tomorrow night at 7:30 in its hall, corner Fort and Beretania streets, by Honolulu Lodge No. 1, Modern Order of Phoenix. A fine program has been prepared, and invitations extended to members and their friends to attend. On the entertainment committee, which promises several original stunts, are Messrs. Warner, W. M. Kennedy, Sanders and Thomas Kennedy. The music committee, consisting of Messrs. Hillman and Arnold, has secured the Hawaiian Tropical Club to sing Hawaiian songs and play instrumental numbers.

Morning on 'CHANGE

Trading has fallen into a narrow rut again, only 185 shares changing hands this morning during the call. Between boards over the week end 975 shares were sold, with Olua the leader, in point of volume of business. Olua and other speculative and semi-speculative issues show fractional declines, but the market is so quiet that it shows neither weakness nor strength. Buyers, apparently, are holding off in hope of a decline, and a spasmodic profit taking seems a thing of the past just now.

Catherine Vecchio, five months old, was burned to death in her crib in the home of her father, Alexander Vecchio, at Arlington, N. J., when her two brothers set the bedding on fire while playing with matches.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

On Wednesday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, the annual meeting of the Humane Society will be held in the city library. Miss Lucy K. Ward, humane officer, will present her annual report at this time.

Between 400 and 500 people attended a big luau at the place of Mary Ann Perry near the end of the Manoa cañon, Sunday. The usual form of entertainment was offered, after a big feast under canvas on the lawn. Among the guests were people of all nationalities.

Twenty-seven amateur wireless operators have enrolled in an association which Joseph Nobriza has formed for the purpose of trying to get the government to take the seals from wireless instruments here. Among the 27 owners of wireless stations here are men of almost every nationality. There are two Chinese and several Hawaiians, but no Japanese, on Nobriza's list.

SPALDING'S SON CONTESTS WILL

Alleges Undue Influence By Theosophist; Says Father Not in Sound Mind

SAN DIEGO, Cal.—When formal application was made today for probate of the will of the late A. G. Spalding, known as the father of baseball, Keith Spalding, a son, filed a contest, alleging that his father was completely dominated by his wife and Mme. Katherine Tingley, the noted theosophist, for several years prior to his death, September 9 last.

Keith Spalding alleges that for several years before his death his father was not in his right mind; that his mental and physical strength were impaired by advancing age, by sickness and by business worries. That the will was procured through undue influence of his wife, the said Elizabeth Churchill Spalding, and Mme. Katherine Tingley, was the direct result of this undue influence, is another allegation.

A fortune of $2,000,000 was accumulated by Spalding, according to the contest. This declares the son in his attack on the will, was the result of the joint industry of his father and mother, and was accumulated before the second marriage, which occurred in 1900. Spalding's first wife died in 1899.

That Mme. Katherine Tingley took immediate charge of the body and had it embalmed one hour after death and cremated 34 hours afterwards is another sensational charge in the document.

In the will the entire estate is left to the widow, except $100,000 each to the son Keith, to Durand Churchill, a son of Mrs. Churchill Spalding by her first marriage, and Albert G. Spalding, Jr., an adopted son.

Light Sidelights on Police Court Scenes

D. Kahale, arrested for having one lottery ticket in his possession Sunday, was fined $25 by Judge Monsarrat this morning. Kahale pleaded guilty.

One drink of gin from the flask of a friend drove Joe Kuku to jump into the stream near King and River streets. Kuku and the friend were sitting on the wall, and after the drink Kuku plunged into the water. He was fished out and taken to the police station, but as he appeared rational was later dismissed.

Jonah Davis, who said that a man named Willie, and a companion came to his home at the corner of Queen and Richard streets late Saturday night and assaulted him, was treated by R. G. Ayers, emergency hospital surgeon, for a bad cut over the eye, which Davis said was inflicted with a rock. The police are looking for Willie.

After being informed by Rev. J. P. Erdman that two Japanese were having a fierce fight on a lane off Beretania street near the Moikili hall park, Judge Whitney and John Marcellino went to the place in an automobile and found Shibasaki bleeding from a wound in the head inflicted by Kino abita with a file. Both men were taken to the police station.

A. Aina, who lives at Kakaako, is under suspended sentence for thirteen months, the charge against him being that he harpooned a dog.

Aina is by vocation a fisherman, but he also keeps chickens. Ching Chuck, complainant in the case, keeps a dog. According to evidence Chuck's dog has a craving for eggs, and satisfied it by eating those laid by Aina's hens, until he got the harpoon. Aina's aim was good and he shot his fish spear into the dog's side, causing it to suffer. The dog may die. Aina was charged with cruelty to animals.

Either the mere presence of John Kaluna is fascinating or he plotted wilfully with his wife to get free fare to Honolulu from Maui. Court officials have not decided which is the case.

Martha Kaluna appeared a few days ago and complained that John had deserted her. He was brought back on a warrant and then appeared before Judge Monsarrat to answer a charge of wife desertion. Martha was present, but instead of prosecuting she wept over John and they arranged to go back to Maui together. The county paid Kaluna's transportation back here, and since his wife withdrew the charge there is an idea existent that Mrs. Kaluna was merely lonesome and took this method of getting her better half back for a visit without cost.

WITHDRAWS CHARGES AND INVITES FORMER ENEMY TO GO TO SHOW

"Drama of real life ends in the movies"—thus might be stated tersely the story of David K. Nuuanu, police officer, and Nemoku Keamekane of Waianae, which case came up for hearing before the civil service commission last Saturday.

Keamekane had a grudge at Nuuanu because of the fact that Nuuanu had hit him over the head, but that was only a part of the story. The rest of it was that Keamekane accused Nuuanu of indecent actions. He made accusation in three charges filed with the civil service commission, and one other charge in which the head beating was mentioned.

When the case was called, however, and the kind-hearted Keamekane saw his former rival there before him, his heart grew tender. It was not pleasant to think that Nuuanu might lose his job or be sent to jail. Keamekane decided therefore to withdraw all four of the charges, and so the two shook hands over it. That night they went together to the movies.
